MISS HALL SUCCEUMS AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Miss Connie Hall, well known resident of New Hope community in Northeast Coffee County, died at her home Monday following a short illness. She was 47 years of age and was born and reared in the county. Many friends are saddened at the news of her passing.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. Frances Hall; three sisters: Mrs. Genie Parrish, Mrs. Lucile Kelley and Mrs. Pearl Chapman; six brothers: Walter, Claude, Emmett, Cecil, Quiller and B. J. Hall.

Funeral services will be held at day (Thursday) at New Hope Church by Rev. O. M. Fox officiating. Burial will follow in the New Hope cemetery. Hayes Funeral Home will have charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who came to the funeral of our dear daughter, Miss Connie Hall, and help during the sickness and death of our darling son and brother, Donald Wilks. Especially do we thank Dr. Edge, Dr. Sacks, and all the nurses of Edge's hospital. They were so faithful to stand by until death.

We will never forget the many friends, doctors and nurses. Each of you will always be remembered, and may God bless you, is our prayer.

Surviving besides his parents, are one brother, George W. Cain; two sisters, Margaret and Nina Cain. Funeral services were held at New Home Church, February 5, with Rev. W. M. Sproule officiating. Hayes Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Rev. W. M. Sproule, A. C. Dunaway, T. T. Rhodes and C. B. McDowell attended a basketball game in Kinston Saturday night in which the Kinston quintet defeated the soldiers' team from Eglin Field, 58 to 28. The Kinston team is made up of unusual young boys for a high school team, none being over 16 years of age. They show good coaching and have a fine season's record to their credit.

Jack Brunson, student at Stark's school in Montgomery, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brunson, during the week end.

Mrs. Comer Johnson returned last of the week from Miami, Fla., where she spent a week with her husband who has assignment with the Navy in that city.

IF YOU NEED GLASSES It Will Pay You to Wait For BARSON!

After all, it's the examination that counts. Correct, scientific examination of your eyes is the ONLY way to determine whether or not you need glasses.

My knowledge in fitting glasses, gained through years of practice, has given me a State-wide reputation. Among you, relatives and acquaintances you will find somebody who will tell you how satisfactory my work is.

Because I specialize in this work only—scientific examination and proper fitting of glasses—you are assured of complete satisfaction.

Full details of the campaign which will run for several weeks are to be given at the auditorium, and the actual collection will begin at this meeting. A truck from Camp Rucker will be here to take the cans, and everyone who is accepted as a collector several months ago for a collection that did not materialize are urged to get them to the school grounds this afternoon.

Please remember that the cans must have both ends cut out and be mashed flat. They will not be accepted any other way. These cans are badly needed in the war effort, and according to Major Eddy of the Camp Rucker public relations office, who was here making plans for the meeting, local officials have agreed to cooperate with civic committees so that regular collection will be made in the future.

Come out and hear this nice musical program this afternoon—soprano, accordion soloist, orchestra—but don't forget to bring 5 nice clean cans.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS, THE SON OF GOD

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 16:13-17, 17:1-19.

GOLDEN TEXT—Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.—Matthew 10:32.

"What think ye of Christ?" There is a question that every human being must answer. Jesus asked it (Matt. 22:42), and each of us makes some kind of reply.

It is the touchstone that tries men, and churches, and nations, and movements. The answer to it is of deep importance, for it determines character, condition, and destiny for time and eternity.

Jesus, the Christ, the Son of the living God, is the center of the entire lesson.

I. Jesus Confessed (16:13-17).

With His crucifixion now only six months away, our Lord in preparation for it to make a more definite claim to Messiahship, and thus to establish the truth in the minds of His disciples. He therefore asks this all-important question about Himself.

First—It is a general query, "Whom do men say that I am?" The answer (v. 16) indicates that the common opinion concerning Christ was a very high one. He had made an impression on the people of His time, and this has been true down through the ages. Even those who do not believe on Him admit that He was "the ideal representative and guide to humanity," or the person whom "everyone would heed." But beautiful tributes to His character and leadership are worse than meaningless unless they lead to a personal confession of Him as Lord and Saviour.

The question becomes personal as He asks, "Whom do ye say that I am?" That question no one can escape. We cannot refuse to answer. Neutrality is impossible. Whatever we do or say, or do not do or say, is a decision.

Peter's answer is really the sum and substance of Christian doctrine. He recognized Him as the Messiah, the fulfillment of all Hebrew prophecy, and as the Son of the living God, the Redeemer and Saviour of men, the One in whom centers all Christian faith.

II. Jesus Transfigured (17:1-3).

As His amazed disciples looked on, the eternal, divine glory of the Son of God could no longer be hidden by the human body and the humble garments of our Lord, and "His face did shine as the sun and His raiment was white as light."

They saw their beloved Master now for what He really was, the Son of God. The testimony of Peter was no longer mere words, although ever so blessed. His speech had been confirmed by sight and they knew their Master as the Lord of glory. It is essential in both the life and service of a Christian that he clearly understand the truth about Christ. His person affords his work. When that understanding is tied up with a personal vision of His glory, there is assurance and power.

The want of such a vision explains the lack of zeal for soul-winning, the ineffectiveness of witness, the unwillingness to suffer or sacrifice for Christ's sake. "Where there is no vision, the people perish" (Prov. 29:18) for want of a witness concerning the Saviour.

III. Jesus Triumphant (17:4-6).

The crowning point of the transfiguration came when the voice spoke out of the bright cloud and gave not only the Father's unqualified approval of Christ, but also His command that men should listen to Him and heed His message of redemption.

Note how this word of the Father completed the transfiguration. In itself it might have been likened to that which happened to Moses (Ex. 34:29, 30). We say likened to, because the glory which showed forth in Jesus was from within, not just a reflected glow.

But the words from heaven provide the conclusive and final witness. They so impressed Peter that he talked of them as a cherished memory and a transforming power in his life, even when he was an old man (1 Pet. 1:16-18).

How do they impress you? Are you ready to acknowledge Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, and take Him as your Saviour?

IV. Jesus Seen (17:7-9).

Having seen Him in His glory, they now saw Him alone. True, the clouds had gone, but there no longer was the thought that He, the blessed God, now filled the vision of their souls.

Surely we find it right at hand to make that application to our own lives. When we really see Him as He is, then He fills our vision, and when He does, we have reached real satisfaction of life.

"Jesus only" is more than a motto or a theme for a song. It is the epitome of a life worth while. It makes one want to ask everyone, "Do you know Him?" Well, do you? If not, will you take Him as your Saviour right now? Christian, will you let Him fill your life?

helps you raise more beef

With the United Nations appealing to American farmers to raise more beef and pork, many farmers are paying their feed lots with concrete. This saves feed and labor—leaves more feed for pigs following the cattle—saves manure.

Free booklets showing how to build productive improvements with thrifty, lasting concrete are part of this Association's wartime service to farmers. You or your contractor can build concrete jobs with minimum critical materials. Mail coupon today.

Complex prewar battle system, by which the Reich attempted to to business without formal exchange. In agreement on military plans, the Big Three also were reportedly in harmony on postwar occupation of Germany, with Britain taking over the northwest, the U. S. the southwest and Russia the east.

Following 11 hours of intensive aerial and artillery bombardment, Montgomery's forces, paced by tanks and flame throwers, fought deep into the Reichswald forest screening Elbe, while the Germans rushed up reinforcements in an effort to curb the offensive. Not only would a British breakthrough imperil the industrial Ruhr valley, but it would place the Thuringian line terminal of Kleva on the northern end of the front and move down the Ruhr valley.

While Montgomery's offensive mounted, the First and Third armies continued to chew deeply into the once formidable Siegfried line, with the battering Yanks encircling new earthwork defenses beyond the west wall's concrete bunkers, pill-boxes and tank traps. Strongpoint after strongpoint in the Siegfried line fell as the Nazis appeared to be falling back into the earthwork system, stretching as far back as the Rhine in some places.
